POSTKARTE.

Pebworth is one of the eight villages mentioned by Shakespeare in the famous quatrain:

"There's piping Pebworth, dancing Marston, Hanted Hillborough, hungry Grafton,
 Dudging Exhall, Papist Wixford, Beggarly Broom and drunken Bidford."

The village was formerly a centre of the weaving industry and wool trade (the occupation of Shakespeare's father).

Many tks for P.L.
Just received. But I am at a loss to know what XGS Pel means.
I have puzzled my poor brains but all in vain !!..!! Tell me what it is. N.K. J.
